

The main attraction in Rome were the gladiator games. Here, famous fighters, often slaves or prisoners-of-war, fought to the death. These shows were usually free, since the emperors believed it was a good way to keep the people happy!

The Colosseum